The John Emms Memorial Trophy for Marbleheads, was held at Risdon Brook Dam in a gnarly westerley, blowing from 10 to 20 knots and constantly shifting which had everyone on their toes and made rig choice tricky throughout the day. With 10 boats contesting the event, John Cole Cook and Cassie Midgley proved the most consistent, with John taking it out in his Walicki Skalpel. Peter Darcey with his new Vibe, was always near the pointy end and Wayne Behrens had some good results, with Ken Dobbie winning the last race. The PRO Les Hanson set good courses in the awkward wind direction, and ran a measured and fair event, allowing for rig changes etc. He was ably assisted by John Webberley, and we thank both for giving their time.
